

SOCIETY

FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, Dec. 10.—Maj. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell were host and hostess at an attractive dinner in their quarters in the main garrison last Friday evening. Covers were laid for Capt. and Mrs. George H. Jamerson, Lieut. and Mrs. John B. Richardson, Mrs. Pearson, Maj. and Mrs. Van Poole and Lieut. Carl Cohen.

There was a meeting of the officers and ladies of the post last Monday afternoon at the Officers' Club. A permanent hop committee was formed and a hop committee appointed. It was decided to give two hops each month, one informal and one formal. The informal hop for December will be held next Friday evening and the formal one sometime during the latter part of the month. This, however, will be in the nature of a reception and dance in honor of Colonel and Mrs. Walter H. Chatfield, the new colonel of the 2nd Infantry, and his family.

The hop committee elected is Captain George H. Jamerson, 2nd Infantry; Captain Edwin Harbison, 2nd Infantry; Lieut. F. F. Black, Signal Corps; Lieut. William Covell, Corps of Engineers; and Lieut. Thomas Crystal, 2nd Infantry.

Mrs. William R. Dashiell was hostess on ladies' night at the 2nd Infantry Club. Seven tables of bridge were played, and Mrs. Martin having the highest score won the prize—a most attractive electric toaster. Among those playing cards were Captain and Mrs. W. B. Cochran, Lieut. and Mrs. Martin, Captain and Mrs. Parker, Captain and Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln, Lieut. and Mrs. John B. Richardson, Lieut. and Mrs. Clyde R. Abrams, Captain and Mrs. Alden C. Knowles, Lieut. and Mrs. F. F. Black, Lieut. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Fredendall, Mrs. M. J. Lenihan, Mrs. T. J. Harber, Col. and Mrs. Chatfield, Col. and Mrs. B. W. Atkinson, Major and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Mrs. Pearson, Madame Cochran, Captain and Mrs. Jack Hays, Lieut. and Mrs. Douglas T. Greene and Lieut. Carl Cohen.

Col. and Mrs. Chatfield were at home last Saturday evening very informally in their quarters in the main garrison. A most delightful evening of dancing was enjoyed by the many who called. Col. and Mrs. Chatfield have planned to be at home on Saturday evenings and in future these delightful affairs will add much to the gaiety of the post and prove to be very popular. Among those who were at Mrs. Chatfield's last Saturday were Capt. and Mrs. Paul B. Malone, Miss Mary Kerwin, Maj. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Mrs. Pearson, Lieut. and Mrs. John B. Richardson, Lieut. and Mrs. Martin, Lieut. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Mrs. W. B. Atkinson, Mrs. John B. Richardson, Mrs. Pearson, Madame Cochran, Mrs. W. B. Cochran, Mrs. F. F. Black, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. O. B. Rosenbaum and Mrs. Tupper. Later in the afternoon tea was served and Mrs. Atkinson presided at the table.

The Sewing Club met at the quarters of Mrs. Charles H. Lincoln in the main garrison Tuesday afternoon. Among those present were Mrs. Walter H. Chatfield, Mrs. William R. Dashiell, Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Mrs. W. B. Atkinson, Mrs. John B. Richardson, Mrs. Pearson, Madame Cochran, Mrs. W. B. Cochran, Mrs. F. F. Black, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. O. B. Rosenbaum and Mrs. Tupper. Later in the afternoon tea was served and Mrs. Atkinson presided at the table.

Lieut. and Mrs. John B. Richardson entertained informally at dinner on Friday evening in their quarters in the cantonment. Covers were placed for six and Lieut. and Mrs. Richardson's guests were Miss Bonnie Scott, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Lieut. Witzell and Lieut. William E. R. Covell. Later they all attended the informal hop at the 2nd Infantry mess.

Among those who sailed on the transport last Monday were Captain and Mrs. James E. Bell and their son, Jimmy, and Mrs. Joseph A. McAndrews, accompanied by her two children, Shirley and Pan McAndrews. During the absence of Captain and Mrs. Bell, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Calder will occupy their quarters in the main garrison.

Maj. and Mrs. Van Poole sailed last Saturday for Hilo for a ten days' leave of absence. They took their motor with them, and while away will visit all points of interest on the island of Hawaii, including the volcano. Maj. and Mrs. Van Poole are expected to return to the post some time next week.

Lieut. and Mrs. Douglas T. Greene who have been in Honolulu for the past months, have returned to the post and are spending a few days with Mrs. Greene's mother and father. Major and Mrs. M. J. Lenihan, before moving into their new quarters in the bachelor building.

Lieut. and Mrs. George H. Halloran entertained informally at supper last Sunday evening for Lieut. and Mrs. F. A. Barker and Dr. Deiber.

Capt. and Mrs. Robert P. Howell, Jr., entertained some of the younger children of the garrison on Wednesday day in honor of their son Bobbie's fourth birthday. Those present were Freddie Black, Tom Chrystal, Jr., and Junior Richardson.

Miss Quetta Franklin of Los Angeles, a house-guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Frank J. Lowry.

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. B. W. Atkinson entertained at dinner last Friday evening in honor of Lieut. and Mrs. Greene of the naval station, Pearl Harbor, who sailed for the mainland on the Great Northern Monday.

Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph McAndrews entertained at dinner in their quarters in the cantonment last Wednesday evening for Captain and Mrs. James E. Bell and Lieut. and Mrs. Lloyd Fredendall.

Lieut. Helmick and Lieut. Gunner, passengers on the transport Sheridan for the mainland, were the house-guests of Maj. and Mrs. William R. Dashiell while the transport was in port.

Lieut. and Mrs. Lloyd Fredendall entertained at dinner last Sunday in their quarters in the cantonment for Captain and Mrs. Bell, who sailed for the mainland on Monday.

SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Dec. 10.—Col. and Mrs. D. L. Howell entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening. Their guests later attending the 1st Infantry hop in the pavilion. Covers for 14 were placed about a long table which was attractively decorated in yellow. Present were Capt. and Mrs. Jamerson from Fort Shafter, Miss Geraldine Boush from Pearl Harbor, Mr. and Mrs. Deering, Mr. H. B. Weller, from Honolulu, Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carey, Capt. and Mrs. H. S. Kilbourne, Mrs. Howell Clinton, Lieut. Otis Sadtler and Col. and Mrs. Howell.

A supper party of 30 was given on the same evening by Lieut. and Mrs. Fred Pitts, whose guests later swelled the number of dancers at the hop. One large table and six small ones were placed through the living and dining rooms at which the company was seated. Present were Mrs. Alexander Patton, who is the house-guest of Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas Lowe, having arrived on Tuesday for a visit of some weeks; Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Bonesteel, Miss Mary Bonesteel, Miss Edith Patton, Lieut. and Mrs. Walter Pringle, Lieut. and Mrs. Gracien, Capt. and Mrs. John Jordan, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Rice, Capt. and Mrs. George Kumpke, Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Rice, Lieut. and Mrs. Elvid Hunt, Lieut. and Mrs. John Reardon, Miss Elizabeth Patterson and Lieut. Frank Riley, Frank Schneider, Robert Snow, Edward Rose, and Lieut. and Mrs. Pitts.

Capt. Charles F. Bates on Tuesday evening entertained most of his regiment, the 25th Infantry, at a dance, which was given in honor of his house-guests, Mr. and Mrs. Walcott and Miss Huntington of Denver, Colorado, who are sojourning in Hawaii for the winter. The rooms of the 25th Infantry Club were charmingly decorated for the occasion, with vari-colored Oriental lanterns and cut flowers, clusters of white chrysanthemums in abundance.

ance, stood in vases on tables and stands. Among those present were Col. and Mrs. L. W. V. Kennon, Major and Mrs. Frank Albright, Col. Carl Reichmann, Major and Mrs. Edmund Butts, Major and Mrs. Vernon Caldwell, Capt. and Mrs. American Mitchell, Capt. and Mrs. William Mapes, Lieut. and Mrs. Livingston Watrous, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Rich, Lieut. and Mrs. Clarence Tinker, Lieut. and Mrs. Richard Taylor, Capt. and Mrs. Jay Whitman, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Wyman, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Harbold, Lieut. Wallace Philcox, Oswald Saunders, Alfred Sawkins and John Corbly, Mrs. Henry Landry and Lieut. and Mrs. Joseph O. Daly.

Capt. George de Grasse Catlin was a delightful dinner guest on Tuesday, entertaining for Capt. and Mrs. Jay Whitman, Lieut. and Mrs. Louis H. McKinlay and Mr. Le Grand Cannon, who is visiting in Hawaii.

On Thursday a party of Schofield people sailed aboard the Matsushima for Hilo, to visit the Volcano. Among them were Mrs. Richard Kimball and Miss Montague, her house-guest; Lieut. Louis H. McKinlay and Mr. Le Grand Cannon.

Maj. and Mrs. Benjamin Edger gave a charming dinner for 20 on Tuesday evening. Two large round tables were placed for the guests, each having for center-piece a very effective arrangement of brilliant poinsettias, in star-shape. The places were indicated by strips of red ribbons with the names in gilt lettering, and the soft candle light which illumined the scene fell from under red shades. The guests were Col. and Mrs. L. W. V. Kennon, Col. and Mrs. Frank Keefer, Maj. and Mrs. Frank Albright, Maj. and Mrs. John O'Shea, Miss Sue Holcomb, Capt. and Mrs. Clarence Day, Lieut. and Mrs. William Gardenhire, Lieut. and Mrs. Edward McCleave and Capt. Leo Mudd.

Lieut. Kenny Palmer, who was operated upon for appendicitis in the Department Hospital last week, his friends will be glad to know, is convalescing favorably.

Mrs. Ethel Richardson and little son Asher, who have been house-guests of Lieut. and Mrs. George Gay for the past month, sailed for the coast on the Manoa on Thursday.

On Friday evening Col. and Mrs. Frank Keefer gave a delightful dinner in honor of Miss Katherine Schmitt of Fort Kamehameha. Red was chosen for the color note of the decorations of the various tables at which the guests were seated, carnations and African daisies being arranged as centerpiece with red-shaded candelabra carrying out the red effect. The 30 guests were Maj. and Mrs. Powell, C. Fauntleroy, Capt. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Capt. and Mrs. William Chitt, Capt. and Mrs. Clarence Day, Capt. Leo Mudd, Capt. S. S. Creighton, Capt. and Mrs. Clifford Jones from Fort Kamehameha, Dr. and Mrs. Dunger, Dr. and Mrs. George Callender, Lieut. and Mrs. William McCleave, Miss Sue Holcomb, Dr. and Mrs. Cummins, Lieut. and Mrs. Swift Martin, Lieut. and Mrs. Harry Phell, Lieut. Edward Rose and Otis Sadtler and Miss Schmidt.

A number of changes are to take place in the post in the near future, among the personnel. Col. L. W. V. Kennon has received orders, which send him to take command of the 26th Infantry, at present stationed on the border. Maj. and Mrs. Benjamin Edger will move to Fort Shafter on the 20th of this month. Capt. S. S. Creighton will go to Fort Armstrong the 20th, and many of the artillery and cavalry officers are busy packing to take the January transport among them being Capt. and Mrs. Roger Mason, Capt. Ned Rehkopf, Lieut. and Mrs. Louis McKinlay, Lieut. and Mrs. William Gardenhire, Lieut. and Mrs. Seth Cook, Miss Cook, Col. and Mrs. Kennon, Maj. and Mrs. Edmund Butts, Maj. and Mrs. Vernon Caldwell and Capt. and Mrs. John Hunt.

SOCIETY AT COAST ARTILLERY POSTS

Mrs. Frederick Phisterer of Fort Ruger entertained with a bridge tea Wednesday in honor of Mrs. McGowan, who is her house-guest. Bougainvillea was used as the decorations combined with potted plants, palms and fern. The approaching holiday season was suggested in the little poinsettias and holly wreathed snow men, which adorned the score cards. An unusually artistic tray was awarded Mrs. John Mather as first prize, a Japanese bowl went to Mrs. Michael Lenihan and Mrs. Charles Ragan received a silver picture frame as consolation. At the close of the afternoon delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Phisterer's guests numbered 32.

Fort Kamehameha was well represented at the sailing of the Great Northern. Some of those who called on board to wish bon voyage to friends during the evening, or waved farewell from the dock were Lieut. and Mrs. John Mather, Lieut. Coleman Jenkins, Capt. and Mrs. Sanford French, Capt. and Mrs. Malcolm Andrus, Capt. and Mrs. Clifford Jones, Capt. and Mrs. George Taylor, Lieut. and Mrs. Guy Gearhart, Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Frank Coe and Lieut. and Mrs. Herbert Ellis.

Lieut. Thomas H. Jones and Lieut.

E. M. Zell, who were passengers on the transport, were the house-guests of Capt. and Mrs. Clifford Jones. Lieut. Jones is a brother of Capt. Jones and is also in the Coast Artillery Corps. Lieut. Zell was a classmate of Capt. Jones at West Point and is in the 7th Cavalry.

Capt. and Mrs. Clifford Jones gave a farewell dinner Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weston. A centerpiece of African daisies graced the table and covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weston, Capt. and Mrs. George Taylor and Capt. and Mrs. Clifford Jones.

The Fort Kamehameha sewing club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Clifford Jones. Tea and sandwiches were served during the afternoon and those present were Mrs. Powell Fauntleroy, Mrs. Joseph Douglas, Mrs. Frank Coe, Mrs. Frederick Gargis, Mrs. Guy Gearhart and Mrs. Jones.

Capt. and Mrs. George Taylor of Fort Kamehameha are giving a dinner preceding the dance at the University Club tonight. Their guests are Capt. and Mrs. Clifford Jones, Maj. and Mrs. Powell Fauntleroy, Miss Katherine Schmidt, Dr. Regman and Lieut. Fordyce Herge.

Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Reuben Baxter, who left Monday evening on the Great Northern, entertained recently with a farewell dinner at the Courtland. Their guests were Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Frank Coe, Capt. and Mrs. Charles Winn and Lieut. and Mrs. John Mather.

Mrs. Guy Gearhart was hostess Wednesday at the Morning Bridge Club of Fort Kamehameha. Mrs. Malcolm Andrus and Mrs. Clifford Jones held the highest scores. Later, Mrs. Gearhart served iced tea, sandwiches and fruit cake.

Among those who attended the hop supper at Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Frank Coe's at Schofield Barracks were Capt. and Mrs. Clifford Jones and Miss Katherine Schmidt from Fort Kamehameha. Later the party attended the dance.

Capt. and Mrs. Frederick Phisterer of Fort Ruger will have as their house-guests for several months Mrs. McGowan and her daughter, Miss Leonard McGowan of McGowan, Wash. They arrived on the Great Northern.

The Fort Ruger Bridge Club met Saturday evening at the quarters of Lieut. and Mrs. Frank Apple. Mrs. Robert Clark, Mrs. Frederick Phisterer and Mr. Underwood won the prizes for the evening.

Mrs. James Chaney of Schofield Barracks was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thomas D. Sloan, at Fort Armstrong Tuesday.

Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Lewis and

The Hawaiian Annual for 1916

WILL BE READY FOR THE OUTGOING MAILED, AND WILL BE FOUND FULL AND VARIED, AS USUAL, WITH RESEARCH, REMINISCENCE, FOLK-LORE, DESCRIPTIVE AND TIMELY TOPICS IN EVIDENCE OF HAWAII'S PROGRESS.

NOTHING EXCELS THE ANNUAL FOR ALL-ROUND RELIABLE INFORMATION RELATING TO THESE ISLANDS FOR LOCAL REFERENCE AND THE MULTUM IN PARVO FOR VISITORS, OR MAILING ABROAD.

PRICE, 75 CENTS EACH, OR 85 CENTS BY MAIL.

children were the guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas D. Sloan of Fort Armstrong, while the transport was at Honolulu. Lieut. Lewis is in the field artillery.

The Matsushima brought two charming guests to Maj. and Mrs. Charles Ragan of Fort Ruger. They are Miss Elizabeth McCue and Miss Dell McCue and are sisters of Mrs. Ragan.

Lieut. and Mrs. Louis D. Peppin entertained at dinner Monday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weston, who left later that night on the Great Northern.

Lieut. and Mrs. Louis D. Peppin entertained informally at supper Sunday evening for Lieut. and Mrs. Edwin J. O'Hara and Lieut. and Mrs. Rollin Tilton.

Lieut. and Mrs. John Mather were dinner hosts Friday evening, their guests being Maj. and Mrs. Joseph Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weston.

SAN FRANCISCO

Bellevue Hotel

Geary and Taylor Sts.
Strictly First-Class

Built of concrete and steel. Private bath to every room; 12 minutes from Exposition; headquarters for island residents. Rates, $2 per day and up; American plan, $4 per day and up.

Make this a Practical Gift Giving Christmas

Ribbons in the new effect

Sash Ribbons, Hair Ribbons and imported French Ribbons in the magnificent metal effects. They make pretty gifts.

Here are some pretty gift Linens

Beautiful imported linen towels, luncheon sets, bedspreads, table linens, and daily sets finished with real lace.

It Will Be a Disappointing Xmas for Little Girls Without a Doll

We have dolls to please any of the little ones' tastes. Kewpies, Character Dolls, Dressed Dolls, imported and domestic.

Italian Silk Underwear

Many women who deny themselves the luxury of silk underwear for daily uses will welcome a gift of this Italian Silk Underwear. The selection includes slight-gowns, Combinations, Chemise, Corset Covers. Also a lot of Tea Aprons in pretty designs.

HOTEL STREET
HOTEL STREET

SACHS'

HOTEL STREET